

Have you ever written a CV, filled in an application form or gone for an interview?

Then you have the experience needed.

We are looking for around 15 people on each day from a variety of business experiences to work with small groups of children in local secondary schools. It doesn't matter whether you are a Director or an Administrator, or anything in between—you all have the necessary experience.

The specially designed pack will lead you and the pupils through various interactive, engaging and informative tasks.

The day runs from 8.30am to 1.30pm

Dates:

2nd May — Longdean School

27th June — Hemel Hempstead School

15th July — Kings Langley School

Please contact me if you can do one, or more, of these dates or you want more information.
